HYPERION.

The great New York success, "The Masquerader's" will be presented this The play is by Henry Arthur Jones, the noted English dramatist. It ran for ight months at the Empire, crowding of two men and one woman. David Remon, an astronomer, and Sir Brice Rene, an aristocrat, are in love with Duicle Larondie, barmaid at the Stag otel. In the first act a hunt ball is progressing at the stag. To raise a fund for a woman whose husband has een killed, a kiss from Dulcie is pu up at auction. The bidding starts at a sovereign, and there is brisk competiion between Remon and Brice. thousand guineas," said David; Sir Brice bids "Three," and the kiss is his. Sir Brice publicly offers Dulcie his hand and heart. In the second act Sir Bric has been a married man four years money from David Remon, now rich In the third act she has done so to the tune of six thousand pounds. scene is a private sitting room at a Nice hotel. Skene catches his wife and Re mon just as they are avowing their lov and he suggests to David that they should play his wife and child against David's 200,000 pounds. They play, and Sir Brice loses. GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

In announcing the first appearance of John E. Brennan in his Irish comedy drama of "Tim the Tinker" who come to-night and Friday and Saturday eve nings, it is interesting to note some of the reasons that have led to the phe omenal success the play has enjoyed While in its essential features the plece has many points similar to those seen in other Irish dramas, there are many eatures that are novel, and to them ! attributed the strong hold the play has taken on the public. The different cli-maxes, and there are many, are worked up in a most exciting and at the same tine, in a perfectly natural manner. Matiness Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox, the famous poet and writer, is a guest at the Waverly house, for a few weeks. This house is quite a popular resort. An auction sale takes place at David Gracey's Saturday, November 2, at 10 a. m., when hay, oats, farming tools, cattle, etc., are to be sold.

AN ENJOYABLE CONCERT

At the First Baptist Church. The concert at the First Baptist church last night was attended by a large audience that filled the lecture coom of the church and overflowed into the class rooms and was in every way a great success. The ladies in charge and the participants, one and all, deserve praise for the manner in which everything was carried out. The program was as follows: Piano duet-Two Slavie Daness.. Dvorak OUT, 31.

Mas Beeching and Mr. Newton Quartet-Madrigal Cictor Harris First Baptist Quartet. DEATHS.

Solo-"For All Eternity," ... Mascheron Miss Hodkinson. Mrs. Hunt.

Reading-Selected Solo-"Sunset," Dudley Buck

Mr. Edgar. Duet-"Fantasie Ballet," .. Ch. de Berlot Mr. Fred Fowler, violin. Mr. Chas. Fowler, plano, First Impressions of England."

Mrs. Caroline Atwater Mason. Solo-"Oh Fair, Oh Sweet and Holy,"

Mr. George Chadwick Stock. Dust-"Gentle be Thy Slumbers,"

Mr. and Mrs. Stock. Quartet-"Two Nonsense Songs,"

First Baptist Quartet. The duet by Mr. and Mrs. Stock had to be omitted owing to Mrs. Stock's indisposition. Mr. Stock kindly substi-tuted another solo. Mr. Newton, the organist of the church, had charge of the musical side of the affair and acted as accompanist.
